

MAAJI: MERCEDES BENZ FASHION WEEK SWIM

Miami Fashion Trends July 21, 2014 FASHION

MIAMI, FL – On Saturday, July 19th, Colombian swimwear brand, MaaJi returned for its second season at Mercedes Benz Fashion Week SWIM, taking Miami spectators on a magical equestrian adventure through its new 'Royal Riders' 2015 collection.

A total of 56 looks were presented on the Oasis runway including women's swimwear, men's trunks and an exclusive peek at the never-before-seen 'Studio Collection' featuring women's activewear. Actress Serinda Swan and TV Personalities Adriana de Moura and Luann de Lesseps were among the onlookers in the grandstand.

The Derby theme was present throughout all elements of the show, from the custom runway backdrop to the styling of each model including equestrian riding helmets and crops, and gingham print jackets that accessorized the looks, reminiscent of race day. This season Head Designer Juliana Londoño and Lingerie Designer Nani Valenzuela incorporated bright colors and nude tones mixed with neons and pastels, floral patterns, photographic prints and contrasting piping.

maaji - Mercedes benz fashion week

Maaji - Mercedes benz fashion week

Maaji - Mercedes benz fashion week

Maaji - Mercedes benz fashion week

Maaji - Mercedes benz fashion week

maaji-NaniValenzuela-JulianaLondoño-2.jpg

Structured swimsuits such as body cons were front-runners this season, as well as underwire tops, strappy backs, and lingerie-inspired elastics and trims. High-waisted bottoms and high-cut legs were also a favorite, along with new sports-inspired silhouettes including long-sleeved one-pieces and rash guards.

Structured swimsuits such as body cons were front-runners this season, as well as underwire tops, strappy backs, and lingerie-inspired elastics and trims. High-waisted bottoms and high-cut legs were also a favorite, along with new sports-inspired silhouettes including long-sleeved one-pieces and rash guards.

Behind-the-scenes: the models flawless glow under creative direction of Makeup by Aileen X TEMPTU airbrush makeup, along with hair styling by Junior & Hatter and Living Proof hair care products, as well as bright orange nail polish by GLOSS Naturals.